within the 1880s, Oscar Townsend and the Cleveland, Lorain, & Wheeling Railroad built a filthy rich holiday resort, ultimately referred to as "Chippewa Lake Park," at the banks of Ohio's greatest traditional lake. The nice melancholy and extinction of interurban carrier crippled the park, yet in 1937, Parker seashore bought the resort, and it loved a swinging Golden Age via 1969, as he saved the park's ballroom full of dancers and well-known bands. In 1978, after greater than a hundred years of operation, Chippewa Lake Park joined the ghostly ranks of the final conventional entertainment parks. Chippewa Lake Park retains the reminiscence of 1 of Ohio's longest-lived and best-loved leisure parks alive via classic photos and beautiful history.
